Just want to give a huge thank you to my instructor Fiona who got through this massive task with me! She's been a great help and anyone would be lucky to learn with her :) she makes driving lessons so much more fun and even though it's been a long journey for me she had faith that I could do it and the most amount of patience you can imagine! So I would advise anyone looking for an instructor to definitely go with Fiona because you can't get a better instructor who would make you feel as comfortable and positive as she can! Thank you so much for everything and I will take on board what I learned from you and make sure to put it into my real driving. Sana xx

Thank you Debbie for everything you've taught me.. I recommend her for any and everyone looking for the total driving experience.

Just want to say a big thank you to my driving instructor Vanda who helped me to pass my driving test first time and very quickly too as I only turned 17, 4 weeks ago! Vanda was very encouraging, making my lessons enjoyable as we had quite a few laughs on the way, but at the same time learning loads so I can now be safe on the road in my own car. I will miss my lunchtime treat on Monday's now. Thank you so much Vanda, I will tell all my friends, JEDS are the best!

Max Hutchings, Coulsdon – October 27, 2014

Just passed my driving test today 1st attempt at Croydon Test centre with the fantastic help from Fiona. I just want to say a huge thank you to Fiona because without her I don't think I would have passed my test. She was really patient with me and so encouraging; she believed in me before I even believed in myself and she never gave up on me even when I had wobble days. She's a brilliant instructor and I advise anyone who is looking for an encouraging, humorous and an enjoyable experience she's the lady for you. I had an instructor before I came to JEDS and I hated him, he wasted my time and money driving around in car parks. But as soon as I drove with Fiona I was driving on the road in my first lesson and she is very affordable. So to all you learners out there if you want to pass quickly Fiona is your lady.

I would like to thank JEDS so much for helping me pass my test 3 days ago! However a special shout out must go to Dave Kingett, how do I even begin to describe my time with Dave? He has not only been my driving instructor but also personal councillor, DJ and all-around amazing guy! I couldn't imagine learning to drive with anyone else! He always kept me motivated and pushed me to be confident which was my biggest problem when I started learning! I would 100% recommend him to anyone looking for a driving instructor and I cannot thank him enough for taking his time to teach me such an important life skill. THANK YOU SO MUCH DAVE!!!

Zacharias Phoka, Norbury – June 9, 2014

A BIG THANK YOU TO SHAHIN FOR BEING THE MOST FANTASTIC INSTRUCTOR EVER!!!! I started learning with another company but I left because my instructor was very impatient and I was always made to feel like an idiot each lesson. A friend of mine recommended me to JEDS after passing with them. From the moment I got in the car Shahin made me feel comfortable and relaxed which made me look forward to my lessons every week. I could see progress after each week and my confidence behind the wheel grew more and more. As much as I was always chatty and we had a laugh he always made sure that I remained focused and that I was driving in a safe manner. When he felt I was ready for my test he told me to go for it and gave me lots of encouragement and support which made me feel confident that I could pass first time but I didn't because I made my nerves get the better of me but he encouraged me to go for it again and not to be disheartened. I passed yesterday second time and still can't believe it!! I don't think I could have done it without you Shahin so once again THANK YOU!!! I couldn't have asked for a better instructor. You are a great mentor and I will miss our jokes! I highly recommend you. Keep up the great work!

Montel Peck – May 6, 2014

I started with Lynn who thankfully took me on after a first bad instructor from another company, and taught me the skills I needed, that I hadn't been shown previously. JEDS gave me a lot of confidence, and Dave especially boosted the confidence I needed in myself in order to drive safely. Dave also really went out of his way to give me the amount of lessons I needed before my test, and created a really calming, fun, and enjoyable lesson each time! I always had a laugh when driving with him! Thank you so much to both Lynn and Dave for teaching me the skills I need, and making me a much more confident driver! Bring on Pass Plus with Dave!!

Vicky Yates, Tandridge – April 25, 2014

A huge thank you to my two driving instructors Khadijah and Naseem, who taught me how to drive safe for life. It is only because of them that I passed my driving test first time, and indeed my theory first time, too. Their patience and understanding allowed me to go further. The way that they taught me was awesome too, as they explained things perfectly, allowing me to concentrate on what really mattered; me to putting it to practice. I can't thank these two lady's enough as an inexperienced driver, they have taught me a valuable life skill, thank you so much Khadijah and Naseem, and thank you so much Jeds!
Shaheen Sattar, Tooting – April 24, 2014

Cezar Aguiar, Streatham – April 18, 2014

I joined Jeds after failing my first test with another company with 13 minors, and a serious fault. My driving instructor for JEDS was Yiannis who helped me brush up on my driving and maneuver skills in order to prepare for the test. Additionally, such skills are for life when driving my own car in the near future. Each lesson was enjoyable as Yiannis is someone you can get along with easily and have a good conversation with whilst still learning all the key skills required for driving. I highly recommend him as he will guide you through being a safe and reliable driver. I had my test yesterday at Mitcham and I passed with only 3 minors which is significant improvement in comparison to my first driving test.
Ayoub Hachoumi, Mitcham – April 17, 2014

I passed first time with Dave as my instructor. He's a great guy and such a laugh as well as being an amazing instructor. He's taught me how to be the best driver I can be, along with my tapping and humming. I will miss having him sitting next to me in the car but thank you for everything Dave!

Big Big amazingly BIG thank you to Fiona. I PASSED MY TEST TODAY. Honestly, I wasn't sure it was ever going to happen, because I would just dissolve into a complete bucket of nerves on the test, I was like a completely different person, even I didn't recognize myself on tests (yes I had to take them a few times). I almost lost hope, confident in other areas of my life, just a mess on driving tests. Fiona didn't let me give up on myself or wallow in self doubt because she knows I'm a good driver. And now I have PASSED. Thank God. Thanks for the support, the ease with which you showed me how to be a safe driver, and your constant encouragement. pulling me up and kicking my butt when I needed it, and always reminding me of the goal. Really really appreciate it Fiona. You are amaze balls !!!!

Talibah Odonkor, Croydon – April 12, 2014

I passed my driving test today at Mitcham Test Centre! I took an intensive course with Debbie and it is a testament to her teaching skills that I passed first time. Debbie was very professional and guided me through the techniques needed to be a good driver. I would recommend her highly as she will help you learn everything you need to know, not only to pass the test, but to carry the skills forward when you get your own car. She's got a super learner car too! Thanks so much Debbie, I really appreciate what you've done for me!

Passed my driving test today with Angela being my driving instructor. From the start we had a good friendly relationship and she made me feel comfortable driving. She has taught me so well and I now feel really confident behind the wheel. Even if I was in a bad mood or having a bad time, she would be there to lift me up in my driving lesson so I was constantly improving. Finally we have got there and I am over the moon and so happy that I had her as a driving instructor as she is the only one I had to use. I received a great service with her and I'm so happy to see how much I have grown behind the wheel because of her.

So relieved I've passed! Will definitely recommend the JEDS and Chris to all! Got a cheeky 120 likes on the picture I uploaded, I'm sure you may get a few inquiries dropping through!

Feedback:

Well what can I say about Chris? Ever since the first lessons we've had that banter on the road. A cool and calm guy who puts you at ease behind the wheel.

Chris helped me develop so much as a driver from the first few lessons where I pulled up the hand break instead of changing gear and going from first gear to fourth!

Chris was a great support especially when the pre test nerves kicked in, a week before I was calling him frantically trying to book extra lessons!

I can definitely say I'll be hitting the road a safe, courteous and confident driver.

I'll always remember, when someone asks when to turn on your fog lights, the answer's when it's foggy!

HIGHLY RECOMMEND BOTH CHRIS AND JEDS!

Ryan – February 5, 2014
